

The Rambling Rector

Definition: A White Flowering Climbing Rose Or A Vicar With No Sermon Notes!

LITE EDITION

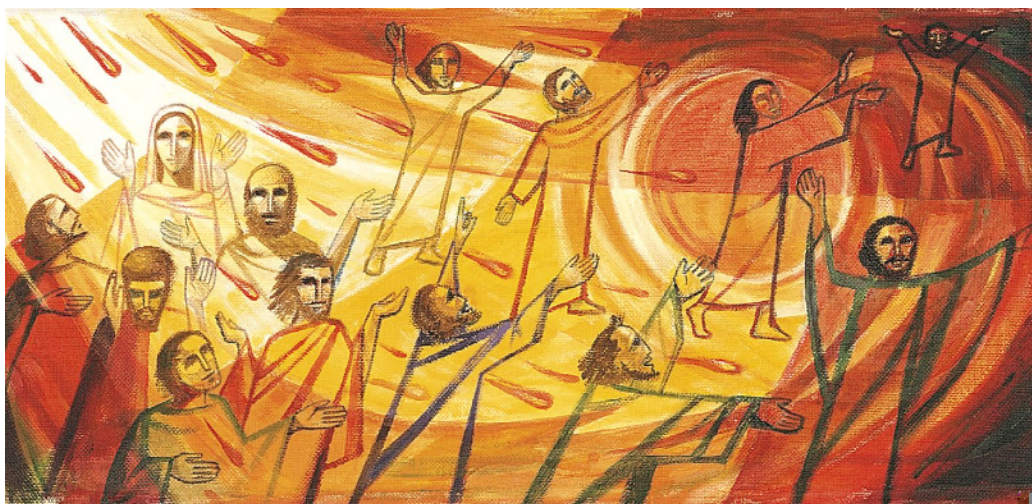

Tuesday 25th May at 7.00pm

This coming Tuesday we'll be looking at 'Walk In The Light' using 1John 1:15-2:2 and 3:11-18 and thinking about moving forward.

Lights for Christ

It's the usual Sunday Zoom sign in and everyone is welcome. You can join in as much as you like or simply listen, whatever you prefer.

Pentecost Praise

We are hoping to host an open air Pentecost Praise on Sunday 23rd May at 3.30pm in Finningley Churchyard.

It's over 12 months since we were able to sing together, so we would like to know your favourite hymn or worship song, and we can then dust off the cobwebs and sing with gusto!

We still face some restrictions, and so households/bubbles will need to sit together, the group of 6 will apply, and the current social distancing guidelines will need to be adhered to. We need to ask you to bring your own chairs please and as we're hoping the weather is kind to us, you may want to bring a picnic for your household/bubble.

Climate Sunday 13th June

This past week saw us thinking about the environment, and our eco-systems on Earth Day

Climate Sunday

Join us for climate-focussed services, to explore the theological and scientific basis of creation care and action on climate, to pray, and to commit to action.

Your Kingdom Come

Could you take part in in 'Thy Kingdom Come 'with Christians from around the world? The disciples, and Mary, prayed from Ascension Day to Pentecost, as they waited for the Holy Spirit. Can you pray during the same time period for the , Holy Spirit to heal the nations and transform our communities? There are a number of opportunities for you to be involved this year from May 13th to May 23rd.

This is a really important part of our church life and Carol is putting together lots of information and resources for us to use. Once they have arrived and been sorted out then we will make them available.
