For Fans of Scoop From Bob The Builder

On Saturday 12th, weather permitting, from 9.30am we hope to finish tidying the ground around the fallen wall in Finningley Churchyard. For fans of Bob the Builder, the long lost cousin of Scoop the digger will be with us in person! Autographs will be available.

If you can help with this final push before we are able to rebuild the wall that would be great.

Speaking of Walls - Sponsor A Brick

The labour costs for the rebuilding the wall will be around £1000, and we then need to add in materials too.

We are therefore offering to anyone who sponsors a brick a unique, and limited edition, fridge magnet that was designed entirely in house. For just £3.00 this special edition magnet could adorn a fridge near you.

See Carol Reeves for more details.
